VAHAN® | 50th ANNIVERSARY

Celebrating 50 Years of Elegance

Made in the USA and based in New York, VAHAN was founded by French designer Leon “Sacha” Der Calousdian. After studying at the prestigious jewelry design school La Chambre Syndicale de la Bijouterie in Paris, Sacha designed jewelry for such brands as Hermès, Cartier, and David Webb before starting his own company, known then as Alwand Vahan. In 2009, Sacha’s son Greg joined the company as VP of Design, bringing his own artistic sensibilities that have helped develop the core VAHAN styles.

Today VAHAN is most frequently recognized for its uniquely textured bracelets, which are the brand’s most widely demanded look. Part of VAHAN’s appeal is the aesthetic of the 14k gold, sterling silver, diamonds, and semi-precious stone combinations. Their styles have a wide array, from dramatic statement pieces to jewelry that can be worn every day and everywhere, each one with class and comfort.
